TEXAS HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

House Membership

Representative Rob Orr

Biographical Information

A fifth generation resident of Johnson County, Rob Orr is a dedicated family man, committed volunteer and a successful businessman. He is honored and proud to represent both Johnson and Bosque Counties in the Texas Legislature.

Owning and operating a successful real estate business in Burleson, Rob understands that a healthy business climate is imperative to the state's long - term economic growth. His commitment to our community is evidence by his service. He has served on the Johnson County Economic Commission, the Burleson Convention and Visitor's Bureau, and as Chairman of the Burleson Area Chamber of Commerce.

Rob has been active at every level of government and has an understanding of the complexities and challenges facing our state. Prior to his election to the Texas House of Representatives, he served on Congressman Joe Barton's Congressional Advisory Committee and the Tax Reform Advisory Committee for former State Representative Arlene Wohlgemuth.

Active in his professional organizations, he has served as President of the Greater Fort Worth Association of REALTORS® and on the Boards of Directors for the Texas and National Associations of REALTORS®. In those capacities he has fought to protect the interests of homeowners on issues ranging from private property rights to home equity lending and insurance reform.

Rob's commitment to faith and community is unchallenged. He has served two terms as an Elder at St. Matthew Cumberland Presbyterian, taught Sunday School and participated on numerous committees. Rob understands that to whom much is given, much is required.

An avid baseball fan, Rob has coached his son's Little League baseball team for several years.

Rob and his wife, Pam, also a REALTOR®, have five children, -- Chelsea, Randi, Michael, Taylor and James. Their ages range from 13 to 24. Rob and Pam are both committed to seeing all the children enjoy the same opportunities and quality of life they have enjoyed.
